For the Literacy Challenge the children need to practice retelling the story of 'Little Charlie' using the story map below (I have put a written copy of the story on the back of this sheet). You can film them retelling the story and post it in their Dojo portfolio.

For the Science Challenge they need to fill in the weather diary for Saturday and Sunday. The weather diaries then need to be returned to school on Monday so that we can continue filling them in throughout the week.

Little Charlie

Once upon a time there was a little boy called Charlie who lived on the edge of a big city. Early one morning he woke up and his Mama said, "Take this bag of goodies to your Grandma's." Into the bag she put – a slice of cheese, a loaf of bread and a square of chocolate.

Next he walked, and he walked and he walked till he came to a bridge – a stone bridge. There he met a cat – a lean cat, a mean cat. "I'm hungry," said the cat. "What have you got in your bag?" "I've got a slice of cheese, a loaf of bread but he kept the chocolate hidden!" "I'll have the cheese please," said the cat. So, Charlie gave the cheese to the cat and it ate it all up.

Next, he walked, and he walked and he walked till he came to a pond. There he met a duck – a snowy, white duck. "I'm hungry," said the duck. "What have you got in your bag?" "I've got a loaf of bread" but he kept the chocolate hidden! "I'll have the bread please," said the duck. So, Charlie gave the bread to the duck and it ate it all up.

Next, he walked, and he walked and he walked till he came to a tall town clock – tick tock, tick tock, tick tock. There he met not one, not two but three scruffy pigeons. "We're hungry," said the pigeons. "What have you got in your bag?" Unfortunately, there was only the chocolate! Luckily, Charlie found some crumbs. So, he scattered them on the ground and the pigeons ate them all up.

Next, he walked, and he walked and he walked till he came to a crossroads. There he met a .... Nobody. "Mmmm, I'm hungry," said Charlie. "What have I got in my bag?" "Mmmmmm, chocolate!" So, he ate it all up!

Next, he walked, and he walked and he walked till he came to Grandma's house. There he Grandma. "I'm hungry," said the Grandma. "What have you got in your bag?" Unfortunately, there was only the chocolate wrapper. Luckily, grandma had pizza and chips for tea.

Story Time With Jesus

11th November 2022

For this week's Story Time With Jesus we hear about what Peter did after Jesus had gone back to His father in heaven.
