

Mickey's 100 Years of Wonder Challenge

27th January 2023

This is your first set challenge for our 100 Years of Wonder celebration (there will be some more pop up along the way during the celebration). For this challenge I would like you to interview the oldest person in your family and collect some of their favourite Disney memories. You can use the attached questions to ask them or you can come up with your own. It is up to you how you record these memories; you can either write them down with the family member or you might want to video yourself and your family member talking about their memories.

Here are some questions that you might want to ask.

- Who was your favourite Disney character when you were little?
- What did you like about this character?
- What was the first Disney film that you ever saw and how old were you when you saw it?
- Did you ever get to meet a Disney character?
- If you did where did you meet and how old were you?
- Who is your favourite Disney character now?
- What would you say to Mickey Mouse if you saw him today?
